

Welcome!

We are an open table people. That means all are welcome here. No matter your past dilemmas or present challenges, no matter your age or race, no matter your gender or political party: we want you to be creative, bold, generous, and make a difference. We hope God unleashes your passion and gifts because the world sorely needs them. We are eager for you to wonder, question, explore and grow. Most of all, we want to journey with you in the adventure of Christ's love. We are glad you're here!

If you are a guest with us today

- We hope you feel at home here, so relax and be yourself.
- We would love to know you are with us today. Please fill out a Connection Card (located in the seat pocket of the chair in front of you). You can drop it in the offering plate during service or leave it at the Welcome Center in the foyer.
- Let us know how we can share more about our church, plug you in, and pray for you.

Sara Don Preaching

September 3, Fire & Shame
Exodus 3:1-16a, 18; 4:10-17

Ministry Intern Sara Don Bailey explores the story of Moses and the burning bush.

Sermon

Disciple/Shift: Meeker Minds
Ephesians 4:1-6

Focus Verse: "One God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all."
(Ephesians 4:6)

Quote: "What we lack is not a will to believe, but a will to wonder."
-Abraham Joshua Heschel

Bid Ideas:

- Wonder-wrecked
- The Road to humility
- Radical Amazement

Discussion Questions

1. Read the passage slowly and carefully. What word or phrase stands out to you?
2. How or why do you experience wonder? What brings you to awe or amazement?
3. What role does wonder have in religion, if any? How might wonder be at the heart of spiritual renewal or reformation for the church today?
4. How do you or how might you cultivate (or regularly practice) spiritual wonder?
