REFUGEE MINISTRY CAMPAIGN

Lenten Opportunity to Give, Pray, & Transform

South Elkhorn sponsored and welcomed an Afghan family to Lexington in November, helping set up a home and assisting with food, education, and clothing. There is one obstacle that is proving particularly difficult to overcome: the lack of a personal vehicle. The goal is to raise at least $20,000 to purchase a vehicle and pay one year's worth of taxes, insurance and maintenance. Learn more and give online using the QR code, or donate by cash or check with memo line "Refugee Ministry."

Flowers on stage honor the 40th birthday of Missy Fields

The Faith, Hope and Love Garden was created after the untimely death of Missy Fields on May 9, 2004. The garden is a quiet place to pray and find peace, especially for those on journeys of grief. The garden is lined with stones honoring and memorializing loved ones. Learn more by visiting the South Elkhorn website or using the QR code.
